

Day One, 25th March 2015 - focus on formative e-Assessment and assessment for learning, knowledge and skills in vocational and academic education and training.

0930 Present landscape including the consequences of the FELTAG requirements and engaging with stakeholders

Chair: Denis Saunders

Gavin Busuttil-Reynaud, Director, AlphaPlus Consultancy - 'How regulation and policy is changing and why it brings an opportunity for innovation in assessment'

Amanda MacGregor, Operations Director, Learndirect

'Consequences of using Technology in Assessment and Learning'

Gavin Cooney, Learnosity

1045 Coffee break and opportunity to browse exhibition and to network

1105 The expectations of stakeholders and learners

Chair: Denis Saunders

Alex Knapp, MD, The Grey Matter Group - 'eAssessment in Health and Social Care'

Mark Robinson-Sivyer, Director, Aleutia - 'Evenly Distributing the Future'

Daniel Kohler - University of Basel/K2Prime 'IOS system case study'

1225 Lunch and opportunity to browse exhibition and to network

1330 The e-Assessment Association AGM and then followed by Question-time Brains Trust 'Focus on FELTAG'

With introduction from JISC

Chair: Matt Wingfield

Geoff Chapman, Business Development Director, Digital Assess

Gemma Gathercole, Head of Policy - FE and Funding

Yousef Fouda, Group Technology Officer & Director of Rugby College

Warwickshire College Group

John Winkley, Director, Alphaplus Consultancy

1500 Tea break and opportunity to browse exhibition and to network

1515 e-Assessment and learning: innovation and development

Chair Martyn Roads, Assessment Tomorrow

Matt Wingfield, DigitalAssess

Jeremy Carter, CIRBUS Assessment - 'eco system - it doesn't end with the test'

Day Two, 26th March 2015 - focus on using e-Assessment at the heart of formal high stakes qualifications and certification, from the school room to workplace

0930 Innovation as a driving force

Chair Colin Deal

Patrick Craven, Director, City & Guilds

Jim Crawford, BTL - 'High Stakes Testing on Tablet Devices'

Aga Jop, Head of Student Services, CIPFA

1045 Coffee break and opportunity to browse exhibition and to network

1100 Developing new approaches

Chair Colin Deal

Rob Arntsen, CEO, MyKnowledgeMap

Natalia Elfimova, Director, Operations and Dmitri Adov, Director, Technical – JSC "Arcadia Inc."

'Modern technologies for developing robust, reliable and cost-effective e-Assessment solutions'

Tim Cammack, MD, Secure and Confidential Documents – 'online marking, dealing with examiners'

Dr Thomas Kropmans, National University of Ireland Galway, 'Online OSCE Marking Tool for

Improved Decisions about Pass or Fail Students'

1230 Lunch and opportunity to browse exhibition and to network

1345 Delivering e-Assessment: quality, effectiveness, efficiency

Chair Colin Deal

Trudi Mellon, Head of Examinations and Assessments Operations, Chartered Insurance Institute

Nic Robinson and Nicky Ward VTCT

Jonathan Hale, RM Results -

'E-marking of high stakes exams: an international perspective of the drivers and barriers to change'

Pete Bennett, MD, LRI and Adrian Jackson, SFJ Awards - 'An Employers view of 'Assessment' "

1500 Tea break

1520 Driving change and innovation

Chair Colin Deal

Martyn Roads, Assessment Tomorrow - 'JISC Survey'

John Winkley, Director, Alphaplus Consultancy - 'Overview of Developments'

1615 Closing remarks from Chair
